

State Resources

SELECT A STATE

Use our interactive map to view information and resources about state-level credits.

STATES WITH EITCS STATES WITH CTCs STATES WITH CDCTCS

10

entries per page

Search:

State	Year Enacted	Refundable?	Percentage of Federal EITC
California	2015	Yes	85 percent for those earning up to $30,000
Colorado	1999, 2013	Yes	50 percent for tax year 2024
Connecticut	2011	Yes	40 percent
Delaware	2005	Yes	Refundable EITC – 4.5 percent; Non-refundable – 20 percent
District of Columbia	2000	Yes	55 percent
Hawaii	2017	No	40 percent
Illinois	2000	Yes	20 percent

State	Year Enacted	Refundable?	Percentage of Federal EITC
Indiana	1999	Yes	10 percent
Iowa	1989	Yes	15 percent
Kansas	1998	Yes	17 percent
Louisiana	2007	Yes	5 percent
Maine	2000	Yes	25 percent for workers without dependent children, 50 percent for all other eligible filers
Maryland	1987	Yes	Refundable EITC – 100 percent for workers without dependent children, 45 percent for all other eligible filers; Non-refundable – 50 percent
Massachusetts	1997	Yes	30 percent
Michigan	2006	Yes	30 percent
Minnesota	1991	Yes	Matches 4 percent of the first $8,750 of earned income
Missouri	2019	No	10-20 percent dependent on state revenue
Montana	2017	Yes	10 percent
Nebraska	2006	Yes	10 percent
New Jersey	2000	Yes	40 percent
New Mexico	2007	Yes	25 percent
New York	1994	Yes	30 percent
Ohio	2013	No	30 percent
Oklahoma	2002	Yes	5 percent
Oregon	1997	Yes	12 percent for filers with children under the age of three, 9 percent for all other eligible filers
Rhode Island	1986	Yes	16 percent
South Carolina	2017	No	125 percent
Utah	2022	No	20 percent
Vermont	1988	Yes	38 percent
Virginia	2004	No	20 percent
Washington	2008 (but not yet implemented)	Yes	Flat dollar amount dependent on household size $300 (no children) $600 (one child) $900 (two children) $1,200 (three or more children)
Wisconsin	1989	Yes	One child – 4 percent Two children – 11 percent Three children – 34 percent

